PRESERVING MARINE CORPS AVIATION FOR THE FUTURE

Preserving History

Honoring the Past

Inspiring the Future

Why Become a Member

The Flying Leatherneck Aviation Museum is the only museum dedicated to U.S. Marine Corps Aviation and the brave men and women who are the heartbeat of Marine Air. The museum holds the largest collection of U.S. Marine Corps aircraft, numerous artifacts and displays, and a marvelous research library that is dependent in part on the financial support provided by the Flying Leatherneck Historical Foundation, its members and donors.

Your membership will ensure that the Foundation continues to meet its mission to preserve the history of U.S. Marine Corps Aviation, honor the service of its people, and inspire in all generations an appreciation of America's freedoms and values.

The Flying Leatherneck Historical Foundation is a non-profit 501 (c)(3) organization. Contributions to the Foundation are tax deductible.
