

2021 “Marines in Flight” Student Art Contest

Dear Student Artist:

Thank you for your interest in our annual “Marines in Flight” Student Art Contest! We are looking forward to seeing your work.

The questions below should be completed by the student. Answers can be clearly handwritten or typed on the page provided or students are free to answer the questions on a different page. The answers should be given to a parent or teacher along with a photograph of the artwork for submittal online at <https://flyingleathernecks.org/education/art-contest/>. Parents or teachers, not students, should submit the entry.

Completed entries are due April 6, 2021.

Please keep your original artwork! Finalists will be notified in May and asked to deliver the artwork to the Flying Leatherneck Aviation Museum.
